

ROOM 112, STUDENT CENTER

Interfaith Reflection Room

LAKE FOREST
COLLEGE

Why have an Interfaith Room?

Our goal is to accommodate the spiritual needs of students, both religious and secular, by providing a quiet space for prayer, meditation, and/or reflection.

A Collaborative Space

Lake Forest College is committed to working with distinct student populations to ensure that our Interfaith Reflection room is managed through a collaborative and harmonious process. You are always welcome to reach out with questions or comments!

All are welcome

This space welcomes all students, faculty, and staff to practice their faith or take some time to reflect in a private environment.

Can I reserve the room?

Reservation options are limited, please reach out to intercultural@lakeforest.edu to ask about availability.

Follow the Rules

Please respect and maintain the collaborative nature of our Interfaith Reflection Room by following the Rules of Use and being respectful of other people who use the space.

Can I request supplies?

Inside the room, you find a small array of supplies. If there is an item or book your religious or spiritual group is missing please let us know!

Interfaith Reflection Room

RULES OF USE

To ensure we serve the community inclusively, please follow the expectations below when you enter the room

Before You Enter

- Enter if the green "Vacant, Thank You" or orange "Occupied--Shared Space" signs are hanging on the door.
- Do not enter if the red "Occupied, do not enter" sign is hanging on the door.
- Knock before entering.
- Once inside, choose between the green and orange signs, and hang it on the door to indicate if the room is occupied.
- Always remove your shoes or use the shoe covers inside the room to maintain a clean and respectful space.
- Food and drinks are NOT allowed in the space. You may bring in a water bottle, but be mindful of spills.

Before You Leave

- Ensure the space is clean; anything that needs to be disposed of should go in the garbage or recycle bins.
- Put away any items you used back on the shelf/where you found them.
- Flip the door sign to green if you are the last person leaving the room.

LAKE FOREST
COLLEGE

Interfaith Reflection Room

Report Issues by filling out the following form:

SCAN ME

OR email us at intercultural@lakeforest.edu